You agree that we will hold the Trial Period Plan payments in an account until sufficient funds are in the account to pay your oldest delinquent monthly payment. You also agree that we will not pay you interest on the amounts held in the account. If any money is left in this account at the end of the Trial Period Plan and you qualify for a loan modification, those funds will be deducted from amounts that would otherwise be added to your modified principal balance.

If your offer is revoked for failure to comply with the terms and conditions outlined in this agreement, we will apply any funds received under the trial period plan in accordance with the provisions of your note and security instrument (mortgage or deed of trust).
